DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 and 10-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by US 6,296,915.

The reference discloses an optical recording medium comprising a substrate, an interference layer, a phase change recording, a second interference layer, and a reflective layer where either or both of the interference layers may be multiple layers and formed of a zirconium oxide mixed with another oxide such as yttrium oxide. See col. 7, lines 28-30. The layers are formed of the claimed thickness. See Examples.

Claims 1-7 and 10-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by US 6,352,752.

The reference discloses an optical recording medium comprising a substrate, a dielectric layer, a boundary layer, a phase change recording layer, a second boundary layer, a second dielectric layer, and a reflective layer where the boundary layers may be formed of a zirconium oxide and another oxide such as on oxide of Sc or Y. The layers are formed of the claimed thickness. See col. 5, lines 1-25 and Examples 38 and 39.

Claims 1-7 and 10-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by US 6,383,595.

The reference discloses an optical recording medium comprising a substrate, first and second protection layers, a recording layer, an intermediate layer, and a reflective layer where the protection layers and/or intermediate layer are formed of a zirconium oxide mixed with yttrium or cerium oxide. The layers are formed of the claimed thickness. See col. 5, lines 35-36, col. 9, line 7 and col. 11, line 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
